

AESTHETICS

1

What Is Art?

- 7 Let's Abolish 'Art'!
Mark Roberts questions whether 'art' means anything at all.
- 9 Can Philosophy Rescue the Art World?
Michael Philips dissects the definition of art.
- 11 Symphonies of the Soul
Patricia Railing on abstract painting and music.
- 16 Music & Personal Association
Gordon Giles wonders if pop music can count as art.
- 20 The Father of Art History
Michael Squire looks at Hegel's philosophy of art.
- 24 Did Duchamp's Urinal Flush Away Art?
Roy Turner argues that traditional art lives on in a post-Duchamp world.

2

Beauty and the Sublime

- 29 Awe & Sublimity
Robert Clewis considers a mighty subject for philosophers and psychologists.
- 31 Aesthetics as a Philosophical Discipline: Kant on Beauty and the Sublime
Anja Steinbauer introduces Immanuel Kant's revolutionary theory of judgement.
- 34 Art: Reaching for the Sublime
Peter Benson offers a Kantian perspective on modern art.
- 35 Beauty versus Evil
Stuart Greenstreet asks if we can judge a work of art to be beautiful even if we consider it to be morally evil.
- 38 Beauty & Science
Marilyn Kane explores the beauty that scientists find in nature.
- 42 Creating the Beautiful Society
Francis Akpata follows Schiller on the artistic path to utopia.
- 44 The Ungraspable Phantom of Life: Walking the Thames with *Moby Dick
Alex Marsh recounts a wintry search for the sublime.
- 46 Pleated with Riddles
Tim B-Gray gives a short response to Alex Marsh.

3

Aesthetic Experience

- 49 Aesthetics: Then and Now
Kai Hammermeister traces the history of aesthetics in philosophy.
- 53 Art as an Encounter
Daniel Vargas Gómez opens himself up for a proper appreciation of art.
- 56 The Moral Countenance of Art
Emrys Westacott asks how we can determine the moral messages of artworks.
- 59 Lawyers, Blondes & Irishmen
Anja Steinbauer has a serious look at the business of humour.
- 61 Emotions: A Defence of Irrationality
Carole Haynes-Curtis on stuffed tigers, pink elephants and Mr Spock.
- 65 The Philosophy of Japanese Gardens
Sailee Khurjekar takes a turn around horticultural aesthetics.
- 67 Are 'Matters of Taste' Matters of Taste?
Michael Langford raises a glass to objectivity in aesthetics.
- 71 The Case Against Conceptual Art
Trevor Pateman argues that art must demand experience.

4

The Value of Art

- 73 Art, Philosophy and the Ultimate Aims of Human Life
Raymond Tallis wants to expand human consciousness through art.
- 76 To Express It is To Explain It
Akilesh Ayyar tries to understand the enigmatic messages of art with the help of Proust and Deleuze.
- 80 Slapstick Anarchism
Thomas Wartenberg thinks silent comedy deserves more respect.
- 83 Can Art Fight Fascism?
Justin Kaushall agrees with Adorno's argument that radical art can promote radical change.
- 87 Mary Shelley's Daughters
Susan Hollis on women science fiction writers as social commentators.
- 89 Schopenhauer the Optimist
Duncan Richter finds salvation in art with Arthur Schopenhauer.

5

Creating Art

- 93 Marcel Duchamp
Alistair MacFarlane appreciates the life of an infamous prophet.
- 95 Musical Hermeneutics: The 'Authentic' Performance of Early Music
Michael Graubart investigates what we mean by authenticity in music.
- 98 Interview with Michael Uslan
Jeff McLaughlin talks with the executive producer of the Batman movies about comics, art and philosophy.
- 101 The Not So Benign World of Photography
Atika Qasim scrutinizes the motivation for taking photographs.
- 104 Nosferatu: Vampires and German Romanticism
Scott O'Reilly sneaks the collected works of Friedrich Schelling into the cinema.
- 106 How Cubism Tried to Create a New Language
Stuart Greenstreet wonders why Cubist communication failed to catch on.
- 109 The Death of Postmodernism and Beyond
Alan Kirby tries to get a handle on the pseudo-modern world.